"Horsin' Around in Kentucky"

DAY 1...All Aboard! Off we go to the Bluegrass State. First stop in the early afternoon is the Evan Williams Bourbon Experience®. Travel back in time to 1933 to celebrate the end of Prohibition in Louisville. Visit will include Baking with Bourbon demonstration by Missy Hillock (or sneaking Bourbon in your food during Prohibition). Missy will share her passion for "America's native spirit" with you. Guests will taste three mini cupcakes made with different flavors of bourbon. Following the demonstration, enjoy the complete Evan Williams Experience (guided tour) which is a multi-dollar artisanal distillery. Next stop is Schimpff's Confectionary, Schimpff's is a fourth generation family owned business featuring an old style soda fountain, tin ceiling antique memorabilia and delicious candies. Watch as the owners make old fashioned candy on decades old equipment...taste testing afterwards. Everyone will take with them a Louisville special treat called a Modjeska which is a great caramel dipped marshmallow. Time to check into hotel to freshen up. Dinner included this evening. (D)

DAY 2...Breakfast this morning is at Churchill Downs. The Backstretch Breakfast is not open to the public. Enjoy breakfast in the Horseman's Track Kitchen, see the horses training rail side, catch them during a bath and learn about life at the track. Be sure to bring your cameras because on any given day of training, visitors will get an up close and personal view of the horses, jockeys, trainers and other connections who live the sport of horseracing. Next stop is the Kentucky Derby Museum...many exhibits, movie and a chance to meet resident Thoroughbred and miniature horses. After an included box-lunch, we will visit The Spirit of Kentucky at the Frazier Museum. First on the agenda is "The Spirit of Kentucky Show". Afterwards walk through a magnificent picturesque covered bridge media experience inside the museum. Follow the path of mesmerizing and astonishing scenes from all around Kentucky and beautiful Thoroughbred Horses. Explore through interactive screens the heritage and history of bourbon and Spirit in Kentucky. There's even a replica of George Washington's "still", as well as, displays about distillation and other aspects of the bourbon industry in Kentucky. Walk across the street to the Louisville Slugger Museum. Tour the Louisville Slugger Vault and discover new treasures as you stroll this amazing collection. Dive deeper into the stories of legendary players who swung these bats. Discover the oldest document bats in the vault. HINT...it is a 3-digit number! Explore the museum Big Bat & Big Glove, Signature Wall, including a Factory Tour. Dinner is included this evening with historian/storyteller to share history and folklore about the area. (B, L, D)

Day 3....Following breakfast at the hotel, we will be visiting Old Friends Farm. In a little more than a decade Old Friends Thoroughbred Retirement Facility, has put a new face on the concept of equine aftercare. Founded in 2003, the organization has grown from a leased paddock and one horse to a 136-acre farm and a herd of over 175 rescued and retired horses. It is believed that horses past their prime could still be valuable in the right venue. Old Friends opened it door to the public, inviting fans to revisit their turf heroes. Now a "living history museum of horse racing", the farm attracts nearly 30,000 visitors annually who come to swoon over Kentucky Derby and Preakness champions. Time to say "good-bye" to Kentucky. Lunch on your own as we travel home to Decatur and Fort Wayne. (B)
