NEW ORLEANS

FEATURING Natchez Steamboat, Oak Alley, World War II Museum, Swamp Tour and More

DAY 1...ALL ABOARD....NEW ORLEANS....here we come! Sit back and relax as we enjoy the beauty of spring waking up all along our route. Arrive late afternoon at our enroute hotel. Dinner and lunch on your own today.

DAY 2... After breakfast, depart for the Cajun Country of New Orleans, also know as the “Big Easy”. Upon arrival, check into hotel. This evening you will enjoy a delicious dinner at one of New Orleans’ popular restaurants. B, D

DAY 3...Enjoy breakfast, then depart on a guided tour of New Orleans and its historic sites. Three centuries of New Orleans and culture will be highlighted during the tour which will include the French Quarter, Jackson, Square, historic St. Louis Cathedral and the exotic French Market. You will pass the splendid Creole Cottages on Esplanade Avenue and view one of the unique above ground cemeteries, referred to as “Cities of the Dead” for their elaborate architectural tombs. Your guide will detail the local legends of voodoo and pirates as you follow Bayou St. John to Lake Pontchartrain and the renowned seafood restaurants of the West End. The tour path will pass St. Charles Avenue, the University Section and Audubon Park. View decadent and exclusive homes of the lush garden District and ride back to the 21st Century as you pass the Superdome and high-rises of the Central Business District. You will also enjoy a visit to the National World War II Museum which focuses on the contribution made by the US to victory by the Allies in WW II and the Battle of Normandy in particular. The museum’s main section focuses on the War in the Pacific and the War against Germany. There is also a special area on the Normandy Invasion and on the Higgins Industries of New Orleans that designed and built the amphibious landing craft. The rest of the afternoon is free for you to explore the area at your own pace. Dinner will be at one of the popular restaurants in New Orleans this evening. B, D

DAY 4... Following breakfast, enjoy a tour of the Oak Alley Plantation, a historic sugar plantation located on the west bank of the Mississippi River. The house was constructed after the formal planting, which is a historic landscape design long recognized for its beauty. An important event in American horticultural history occurred in the winter of 1846-47 when Antoine, a slave gardener at Oak Alley, first successfully grafted pecan trees. Oak Alley also features oak trees that are 200-250 years old. Later, you will depart for the Jean Lafitte Swamp Tour where you will see, and even feed, gators and other wildlife. The rest of the afternoon is free to explore some of New Orleans’ attractions on your own. Enjoy some shopping and lunch on your own in the French Quarter, New Orleans’ most popular neighborhood and one of the best preserved historical neighborhoods in America. The French Quarter features a strong, lasting Spanish and French influence and is home to the best-known party street in New Orleans...Bourbon Street. This evening enjoy a cooking demonstration of a traditional Creole meal and enjoy the finished meal at the New Orleans School of Cooking. B, D

DAY 5...After breakfast, depart for Mardi Gras World for a behind-the-scenes look at New Orleans’ Mardi Gras traditions in a 300,000 square foot working warehouse where floats are made for Mardi Gras parades. You will also see the year-long float building process of these colorful floats. Afterwards, you will enjoy a spectacular luncheon cruise aboard the Natchez Steamboat on the mighty Mississippi River. Savor the beauty and romance of New Orleans and take a journey back in time aboard the authentic sternwheel steamboat. Dinner is on your own this evening. B, L

DAY 6... Enjoy breakfast and start our homeward journey. Overnight at our enroute hotel. B

DAY 7... ALL ABOARD....Indiana Here We Come!!! B
