Day 1...All Aboard....Detroit Here We Come! After lunch on your own, enjoy a guided tour of The Parade Company Studio! Take a behind the scenes look and discover Detroit's hidden treasures as you step into a story land of color and fun. This is where they assemble the beautiful floats for one of Detroit's most anticipated holiday events, America's Thanksgiving Parade. Wander through a wonderland of fantasy and floats. Marvel at the world's largest collection of antique papier-mâché heads. PS... everyone gets a clown nose! Next we will visit the Motown Museum. Motown Museum is the beating heart of the extraordinary Motown legacy—a destination that brings together people and ideas from different generations, and celebrates the past while simultaneously building a bridge to the future. To ensure that the vast collection maintains public visibility, and to keep things fresh for guests, Motown Museum changes its main gallery exhibit 1-2 times per year. We will drop our bags at the hotel and head to the Edsel and Eleanor Ford House for dinner and tour. Experience the historic family home of Edsel Ford, the only son of Henry Ford, his wife Eleanor. The estate is located on a sprawling estate with beautiful grounds and gardens on the shore of Lake St. Clair in Grosse Pointe Shores, Michigan, north of Detroit. The estate was their home, where the couple raised their children — Henry II, Benson, Josephine, and William Clay entertained friends, and enjoyed hobbies. When Eleanor passed, she opened the estate to the public. Now a National Historic Landmark, visitors from all over the world come to wander, wonder, and explore the beauty of this 1928 National Historic Landmark and uncover a unique piece of the American automotive story in metro Detroit. Day 2...After breakfast, we will begin our day with a Detroit Then & Now Guided Sightseeing Tour. Corktown: Detroit's oldest neighborhood, circa 1830; see the monumental transformation of the Michigan Central Train Station by the Ford Motor Company and their vision for the future of mobility. Downtown: The vibrant and engaging redefined downtown area will amaze you with the newest shops, restaurants, cultural amenities, parks like Campus Martius and public art installations. View Parkers Alley and "The Belt" art alley; a culturally redefined alleys in the heart of downtown Detroit. The Belt and Parkers Alley are examples of Detroit's growing interest in reimagining underutilized spaces throughout the city. Entertainment District: with a look at the Little Caesars Arena, Comerica Park, Fox Theater and more. Our included lunch today will be at the Polish Village Café, the decorations that make it feel like you've just stepped into your grandparent's home or the fresh scents wafting out of the kitchen. The small restaurant tucked into a row of homes a stone's throw from Hamtramck's main stretch is a hidden gem to outsiders. To the regulars, it's a mainstay. Walking into the village cafe is an experience. You walk down steps to the basement, some say it feels like a traditional Polish celebration. After lunch we will enjoy the Ford Rouge Factory Tour. Completely reimagined, the factory has undergone a sweeping transformation to become a model of 21st-century sustainable design and showcases how community, business and the environment can thrive together in a single environment. Start to finish, the Ford Rouge Factory Tour offers awe-inspiring encounters with America's celebrated manufacturing past, present, and future. Celebrating the engineering ingenuity behind the production of the all-new aluminum body Ford F-150 truck, the multisensory Manufacturing Innovation film experience comes complete with vibrating seats, gusts of wind, 3D projection mapping, and winking robots.
